Spring Lecture Series April 9 – 14, 2018

Evening Talks...

The Knowledge and the Knower Bhagavad-gītā Chapter 13

The Lord said: “O Son of Kunti, this body is ‘the field’ and the one who knows it is ‘the knower of the field.’ We will seek to understand this intrinsic relationship between this world (jagat) and myself (jeeva) — and gain practical insights on fulfilling the final purpose of life .

Mon, April 9 – Fri, April 13 • 7:45 – 9:15 P.M.

Morning Talks...

Shiva Mahima: Glory of Lord Shiva

Pushpadanta, the celestial devotee of Lord Shiva, is known to have composed a most soulful hymn in praise of Lord Shiva. We will discover this beauty and divinity in the name, form, and qualities of the Idol to reach the Ideal.

Tues, April 10 – Fri, April 13
10:00 – 11:00 A.M.

Saturday Spiritual Retreat: Talks and Q&A...

BEYOND CHANGE

The only constant is change. How are we to live with equipoise in this world of ever swirling changes, let alone go beyond it? Pujya Swamiji will guide us in the art of joyfully riding the waves of change, while being firmly established in our changeless, true Self.

Sat, April 14 • 8:00 A.M. – 1:30 P.M.

Registration is required. Adults $40, Students $25 — lunch provided. To register for the retreat and to offer sponsorships, bhiksha, or seva, please contact Vijaya: (289) 232-9250 or vsadana@rogers.com

Pujya Swami Shantananda

Swamiji is a senior disciple of H.H. Swami Chinmayananda and is the Acharya of Chinmaya Tri-State as well as President of Chinmaya West. He is a highly respected lecturer in North America.
